Arts & Letters

Arts and Letters Committee started this sorority year on a “sweet note”. FAC invited Sorors and the community to a Red Carpet viewing of the movie Southside With You at Market Fair 15 Theater on Sunday, August 28, 2016. The portrayal of future President and Michelle Obama’s first date was a creatively presented plot enjoyed by the 123 in attendance. FAC showed itself to be welcoming to those in attendance by giving door prizes to guests and photo ops for all.

National has encouraged our support of the movie BIRTH OF A NATION. A an L would appreciate your inviting family and friends to join us at Cameo Art House Theater (910-486-6633) at 225 Hay Street, Sunday, October 9, 2016 for the matinee show. Tickets are on sale now for $8.00. Purchase your ticket(s) at the theater mentioning Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

The Red Velvet Book Club invites Deltas, family, and the community to read our first book for this year I ALMOST FORGOT ABOUT YOU by Terry McMillian. The book discussion will be led by Soror Rene’ Corders on October 20 at 6:30PM at Scrub Oaks Restaurant, 5780 Ramsey Street. The second book selection is FORSAKEN by Ross Howell, Jr. Discussion is December 15 at Sammio’s Restaurant on Raeford Road at 6:30PM.

Membership Services

The Membership Services Committee is busy planning upcoming activities for the chapter year. More information will be forthcoming.

The committee is also putting the final touches on the red book. In doing so, we have found several incorrect mailing and email addresses. If you have any information that need to be updated in the Red Book, please inform a member of the membership committee. You should also log in the membership section of the national website and make the appropriate corrections.

As we “Inspire To Reclaim, Retain, And Uplift Sorors”, let us continue to attempt to reclaim sorors. Our goal is 220 active sorors.
